Know him? Ayel the man was black.

Remembrance holds so much—we are not color

We looked not at God's gift beneath that dusky

Looked not back;

He merely flung a shadow in the race—we kept

And gazed ahead on wheels of caste—

How could we pause to note his travails on the

They interviewed his "references," and believing everything straightforward they put up the money.

Subsequently it was discovered that Nobletobith deliberately pocketed the entire sum and besides had robbed the safe of all its valuable.

Being called in for accounting he admitted having taken the money.

They then had him arrested, after which he offered $2,500 in cash as a compromise, which was refused.

The Court officials in New York give the Meares, Watson credit for the only ones who had the courage to prosecute this scoundrel.

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

Edward Arden Noblett poses as a Banker and Broker, but Assistant District Attorney Osborne says he is the "prince of bunco men."

He had had wonderful success in escaping the law in the past, but appears now to have broken into Sing Sing, the maximum penalty for his latest transaction being ten years.

He was born in this case were Messers. Edward H. and Walter S. Watson of this city, who a year or so since established a brokerage business at No. 115 Broadway, New York.

They met Noblett in 1885 in response to his offer to buy a partnership.

He assured them that he had a half interest in a business which brought him annually more than $46,000 if they would put up $10,000.

A TERRIBLE WRECK.

Trains Collide on the R. & O. Road Between Petroleum and Volcano Junction.

FIVE PERSONS DEAD AND ONE INJURED.

Two Engines and Ten Loaded Cars Demolished Owing to a Mistake of the Train Crew.

All the Five Men Were Pinned Under the Wreck, and Only One of the Bodies Has Been Recovered.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 29.—Five persons dead and one severely wounded, two engines and ten loaded cars wrecked is the result of the mile take of a train at Volcano Junction between Petroleum and Volcano Junction, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. An engineer mistook the first section of a passing track for the second. Thinking both had passed, he pulled his train onto the main track and sped onward to what would seem his safety, but he had his death bed. The dead are: H. B. Watkins, engineer of train No. 93; W. W. Cunningham, fireman on No. 93; M. Courtney, of Parkersburg, brakeman on No. 93; J. T. Bailey, of Parkersburg, fireman on No. 87; J. G. Bailey, of Kanawha, brakeman on No. 87.

Terrified Crushed.

The injured—H. B. Davidson, of Grafton, engineer on No. 87, burned, cut and maimed, will recover.

All the men pinned under the wreck were dead and only one of the bodies has been found. He was J. G. Bailey, whose body was crushed so as to be unrecognizable and could be identified only by his watch. On the count of three, the body was taken to the place where the wreck occurred. It was impossible to bring the body to Parkersburg Monday night, and it will be held at Petroleum until the trains get through Tuesday.

The accident occurred in a cut on a curve in a heavy down grade and at the time of the accident the locomotion of No. 37 was on the siding at Petroleum, with orders to wait there until the second section of No. 98 passed east. Engineer Davidson, who escaped with slight injuries, was the engineer on No. 87 and went to sleep on the siding.

Attempt to Avert the Accident.

When the first section went by he thought it was the engine and started out on the main track. His fireman and forward brakeman, both of whom were killed, must also have been asleep for they allowed him to take the train out. The conductor of the first, after he passed, saw Davidson pulling out and tried to warn him. The conductor and the conductor of the fourth, seeing the third section pull out, ran forward after it as fast as possible, his engineer whistling down brakes, and the conductor of the wrecked train ran over the tops of the cars until he reached the end next to the last one wrecked, in his attempt to make himself authoritative that in no event will it be allowed.

TO PREVENT THE FIGHT.

Indemnity Proceedings Based on the Allegation that the Contest is a White Noise.

Columbus, O., Jan. 29.—The state of Ohio is to enjoin the Jeffries-Ruhlin prize fight. Attorney General Sheets will file the suit in the Cincinnati court. The injunction is to prevent the fight, as the exhibition scheduled is a public nuisance and against the peace and dignity of the state of Ohio. The proposed action is endorsed by Gov. Nash.

Ex-United States Solicitor Lawrence Maxwell and Attorney G. H. Ward of Cincinnati are to represent the people, held a two hours conference with Gov. Nash and Attorney General Sheets Monday morning. Gov. Nash gave this formal warrant to Attorney General Sheets in writing:

The Governor's Warrant.

"It has come to my knowledge that certain persons in Cincinnati, O., are engaged in conducting a prize fight on the 35th of February next which has all the earmarks of a prize fight. Such an event would be a disgrace to the state of Ohio, as well as a violation of the law. I hereby authorize and request you to take such steps and commence such action in law or criminal, as may be necessary to prevent this occurrence, and to do in use the name of the state."

The suit will be styled the State of Ohio et al. v. Attorney General against William N. Hobart, George Gauckner, Leopold Kleybolte, Bernard Schaeffer, and others.

The king and queen, with the kaiser, will attend the memorial service at St. George's Chapel, Windsor.

The Mayor's Permit.

The mayor's permit for the contest has not been issued in the office of record book.

Mayor's Clerk Schmidt said Monday that he would enter it when ordered by the mayor. The permit is not on the regular blanks, but was dictated to his stenographer by the mayor.

Engineer Witte said: "A prize fight is a crime—not a nuisance—a squaring match is permitted under the law."

Fight Elsewhere.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 29.—The press announced that Gov. Nash had taken a hand in the Jeffries-Ruhlin prize fight, and that the fight in Cincinnati is now more uncertain than ever. The new suspended sentence being transferred to one of the border counties of this state.

While Gov. Beekham has declined to state in advance of any effort in that direction what action he would take in the event an effort should be made to hold the fight in Kentucky, it is stated by those sufficiently close to the governor to make it seem-authoritative that in no event will it be allowed.

The Erie railroad, which is not a member of the Central Passenger association, has announced that it will grant a rate of one cent a mile for the encampment.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Major Part of the Day Occupied in the House With District of Columbia Business.

Washington, Jan. 29.—The major portion of the day in the house was occupied in the consideration of District of Columbia business.

The bill to revise and codify the postal laws, which has been under consideration at intervals for ten days, was finally passed Monday. Its friends succeeded in confining the bill to a few minor points for which it was framed, and codification and revision of existing laws. All attempts to amend it in any vital particular failed.

The most interesting feature of the day was an attempt to secure a vote upon the senate's resolution to the president to consider and adjudge the cause of United States citizens against Spain arising out of the war with Spain, which this government assumed by signing article 7 of the treaty of Paris. The house at the last session recommended a similar bill, with instructions to report back a bill to confer jurisdiction in these cases upon the court of claims.

Postponed Until Monday.

Mr. Huang, of the committee on war claims, secured consideration of a substitute for the bill drawn in accordance with the instructions of the house, and they appealed to the house to vote down the substitute and pass the senate's resolution. The arrangement of the house was to give the matter a second reading, and postpone consideration of the bill until next Monday.

The senate turned from the grind of appropriations bills to listen to a speech which pointed to the character of an oration from Senator Towne (Min.). Since he entered the senate a few weeks ago, his appointment of Gov. Lind, the Minnesota man had had little opportunity to display his talents. As a representative, when along in Congress, he was interested in the Philippines.

Funeral Procession Route Extended.

In order to give Londoners a full opportunity to witness the funeral procession, it has been decided to extend the route, which is now fixed to pass Buckingham palace, through St. James park and past St. James palace. Previously, when along Piccadilly, the route had been from Hyde park corner, emerging at the marble arch, then along Edgware road to Paddington station. This is double the length of the route originally intended, and will consume fully two hours. For smaller reasons the route at Windsor has been extended to include High Street, Park street and Long Lane before entering the castle.

Royal Personages on Foot.

Cover, Jan. 29.—The funeral procession will leave Osborne house Friday at 2 p. m. The route to the pier will be lined with troops, and the royal personages will follow the coffin on foot.

An order issued by Adm. Sir Charles Frederick Holman shows that 35 British vessels will take part in the naval display.

FOR EXPORT TRADE.

Probably the Largest Order For Cotton Ever Taken For Shipment Through a Single Purchaser.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 29.—It's probably the largest order for coal ever taken for shipment through a single purchaser, and it has been taken by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Co. selling to a New Orleans sugar agent.

200 coal boats, averaging 25,000 bushels of coal each, which is to export trade. The total amount of $5,000,000 bushels will be paid at a price one-third higher than the average prevailing price of last year in the New Orleans market.

The Erie railroad, which is not a member of the Central Passenger association, has announced that it will grant a rate of one cent a mile for the encampment.

Sixteen Lives Lost.

Bethesda, Jan. 29.—The Dutch steamer Holland, from Rotterdam, for Boddenham, sank in the Manas Lias. Eleven of the vessel's crew, four passengers and a pilot were drowned. The ship's master and six of the crew were rescued. The Holland parted ship and sank almost immediately.

Take a cup of Arbuckles' Coffee and a cup of the "cent-a-pound-cheaper" kind. One taste of each will prove to you that the reason Arbuckles' costs a little more is because it's worth more. It's selected with greater pains, roasted with greater care, packed with greater skill. It comes to you as fresh as when it left the roaster. Not a particle of its strength or flavor lost. Cheap coffee lacks both strength and flavor.

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee is cheaper in the end than other coffees because it makes more cupfuls to the pound and gives far greater satisfaction.

With each package of Arbuckles' Coffee you purchase a definite part of some useful article—which is yours on presentation to our Notion Dept., of a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers. You'll find a list of the articles in each package.

RIVER NEWS.

The river is falling all along the line.
The Virginia is due up tonight for Wheeler and Pittsburgh.

The Bonanza from Pomeroy will pass down tonight for Cincinnati.

The Henry M. Stanley was up last night for Pomeroy with a big start.

Lots of snow in the mountains, and with rain a big river would result.

Pittsburgh harbor is congested with loaded and empty coal craft and tow-boats.

Towboats with empties have been making things lively along the river for the past week.

When a coalboat stage develops at headwaters the combine will be able to get out an immense amount of coal.

People along the river had better keep their weather eye open next month. There will be wind and water to waste.

The new Morning Star being built by Howard for the Evansville Mail Company is to be one of the best and handsomest sidewheel boats the company ever owned.

Charles B. Pearce has almost entirely destroyed the sense of smell and completely deranged the whole system where he has been working. His nostrils are so sensitive that he can't bear to be near him. He has been obliged to leave his cabin and seek other improvements added as to make her a better boat than she ever was.

Bones of Oysters for Oysters That Contain Mercury.
As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system where he has been working, his nostrils are so sensitive that he can't bear to be near him. He has been obliged to leave his cabin and seek other improvements added as to make her a better boat than she ever was.

A MEMBER IN ACTION.

On last Friday evening the Fire Club in the Sixth Ward was the Mecca and center where a vast throng of people assembled to witness the proceedings of deliberation of the Limestones Debating Club.

In the first place there was a discussion, and was characterized and surrounded by those elements which cluster about and embody a literary meeting of the usual type. Many of the friends and admirers present imparted new strength and stimulus to the proceedings.

The subject—"Whether or Not the Art of Man Is More Attractive to the Human Eye Than the Works of Nature?" was handled and disposed of in such a way that would arouse the most indifferent and fastidious.

Meers, Pollitt, Dierlehr and Dryden proposed and adopted the following resolutions:

"We do not believe that the art of man is more attractive to the human eye than the works of nature."

Mr. Williams, the author of the work, was called upon to speak.
